

National Symposium on Recent Advances on Floriculture and Urban Horticulture in Global Perspective (NASRAFUH-18)

4- 5 January, 2018

Venue: Farmers' Academy and Convention Centre (Lake Hall), Kalyani, BCKV

The following honors are going to be awarded by the committee:

1. Young Researcher Award

Maximum number of awards : 10 (ten)

Eligibility: M.Sc./ Ph.D students in Horticulture, soil science, plant protection, breeding, biotechnology, economics and extension

Age limit: within 30 years

Mode of selection: The awards will be nominated from the Extended Summaries presented in the symposium

2. Young Scientist Award

Maximum number of awards : 5 (five)

Eligibility: Scientists in the field of Horticulture, soil science, plant protection, breeding, biotechnology, economics and extension

Age limit: within 40 years

Mode of selection: The awards will be nominated from the Extended Summaries presented in the symposium

Any one fulfilling the following criteria can send their extended summary to the mail id: nasrafuh@gmail.com on or before 5th December, 2017. Their extended summary if accepted would be published as proceeding in book form with ISBN number.

For writing the extended summary follow symposium brochure and visit:
http://bckv.edu.in/userfiles/file/Brochure_NEW.pdf